COACH COMERFORD BECOMES BENEDICT

Miss Katherine H. Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Sullivan, 37 Glenwood Avenue, Newton Centre, today became the bride of Walter E. Comerford, son of Mrs. Ann Comerford of Worcester. The Rev. T. A. Curtin officiated at the ceremony at the Sacred Heart church at ten o'clock. Following the ceremony there was a reception at the Commonwealth Country Club. After a journey to New York and Atlantic City, Mr. and Mrs. Comerford will reside at 6 Sutherland Road, Brookline. The groom is a graduate of Boston College, class of 1923. He was an all-around athlete at the Heights playing football and baseball for four years and also doing some track work. He captained the football team in 1922 and received honors on Walter Camp's All-American. He has coached football at Dummer Academy for two years.

FOOTBALL COACH APPOINTED

After three months in the ranks of those without a football coach Dummer has at last picked one. The choice is "Gil" Smith already of the faculty. During the past season he did a little work with the team, and he should now be able to step into "Tony" Comerford's shoes in an experienced manner. Smith is a Dummer man and graduated in 1921. He played a stellar game at tackle here for three years, and migrating to Saint Stephens College he spent two years in a varsity berth there. He not only can play the game well, but what is more important he has the gift of being able to impart his knowledge. The fact that he will be a teacher-coach is notable as that type seems to be superior to the old professional type. The teacher-coach is more interested in the personal development of the boys under him, and Coach Smith is in this class, than in the number of winning games the team plays only. The prospects for a fine season are most encouraging with seven veterans returning, and Coach Smith and Captain Sawyer should work together to fine advantage. The schedule, practically finished will probably carry seven games, and is:

Oct. 2 DeWitt Clinton, So. Byfield.
Oct. 8 Browne & Nichols, S. By'd.
Oct. 16 Amesbury High, Amesbury.
Oct. 23 Pending.
Oct. 30 Milton Academy, Milton.
Nov. 6 Lawrence Acad., S. By'd.
Nov. 13 Pending.

TENNIS TEAM LOSES TO LYNN CLASSICAL

On April 30 the tennis team in its first match fell before the onslaught of the Lynn Classical team 6 to 0 on their own courts. The losers have had but one day on the outdoor courts, and even now they are hardly in condition. A little fairer courts, and a little more exercise in judgement should bring the team into fine mettle for the return match and others on the schedule.

The results:

Singles: Lipman (C) defeated Sloane (D) 6-2, 6-3. Mailey (C) defeated Kittredge (D) 6-3, 6-1. Sack (C) defeated Horr (D) 6-3, 6-3. Young (C) defeated Bridges (D) 6-1, 6-1.

Doubles: Lipman and Mailey (C) defeated Sloane and Kittredge (D) 7-5, 6-0. Sack and Young (C) defeated Horr and Gove (D) 7-5, 1-6, 6-3.

GOLF TEAM DEFEATS ST. JOHN'S PREP.

Thursday, April 29, saw the opening of the golf season when Dummer defeated the St. John's Prep quartet by a good sized margin. Dummer won every match but one. Wilson, the only man of the victors to lose carried his man two extra holes before he was bested. Gilmore of St. John's forced Fearnside to the last hole before yielding. English and Schultz won in a comfortable manner in their single matches, and both the foursomes were taken care of in good style by the Dummer pairs.

The results:

Singles: English (D) defeated Valenti (St.J.) 6 up and 4 to play. Flatley (St.J.) defeated Wilson (D) 1 up. Fearnside (D) defeated Gilmore (St.J.) 1 up. Schultz (D) defeated Hathaway (St.J.) 7 up and 5 to play.

Four-ball: English and Wilson (D) defeated Valenti and Flatly (St.J.) 2 up and 1 to play. Fearnside and Schultz (D) defeated Gilmore and Hathaway (St.J.) 4 up and 3 to play.

"Rip Van (Etten) Winkle" proved his right to the title the other day and incidentally showed where his mind was by undressing for baseball practise, putting on his pajamas, and crawling into bed.

COUNTRY DAY 5

The third game of the season passed as an easy victory for Dummer. Country Day furnished weak opposition and "Bunny" Wilson easily held the batters in check allowing only five runs while his teammates turned in eighteen. The game was called in the sixth as the visitors had to return early to Newton. The first inning had no results for the scoreboard and in the second Garrison took a free ticket, stole second, and scored on Seagreens' double. Fitz started the scoring in the third for Dummer by putting one far over the center fielder's head for three bases. Hinds got a single that scored Fitz, and he crossed the plate on McGinley's triple. Hart scored McGinley on his single. White made first on an error and Hart came home from second on the same error. Country Day attempted a rally in the fourth that resulted in a solitary run. Johnston was hit by a pitched ball, reached third on Garrison's single, and scored on a passed ball.

Dummer made another big inning of the fifth, amasing six runs. McGinley was passed and stole second. Hart's double scored McGinley. White reached first on an error, and Hart scored on the error. White made second and scored on another error. Sleeper singled, made third on Calderwood's single, and scored on Fitzsimmons' single. Hinds' double scored Calderwood and Fitzsimmons. McGinley doubled scoring Hinds, and Hart brought McGinley home with another double. The sixth brought in three runs for the visitors, and eight for Dummer. McGinley singled and stole second third. Hart singled and stole second, and White made first on an error. Sleeper scored all three with a double. Calderwood singled and Sleeper stole third letting Calderwood onto second. Wilson doubled scoring two men. Hinds sacrificed Wilson to third and he stole home. A single, two doubles, and an error accounted for the Country Day runs. The game was called at this point as the visitors had to start for home.

DUMMER TIES MIDDLESEX IN TWELVE INNING BATTLE

After many postponements and cancellations because of the poor playing conditions, the baseball season was ushered in on the Middlesex diamond at Concord in a promising manner. Dummer took the team of the larger school twelve innings at a four to four deadlock, and the game had to be called then because of the darkness and the necessity of the visitors leaving for home.

Captain White's pitching was the feature of the game, and he held the Middlesex batters, who have been practising in their cage since January, scoreless until the eighth inning, allowing only eight hits and fanning thirteen men. When Middlesex came to bat in their half of the ninth the score stood three to nothing against them. A hit, a double steal, and a fielder's choice, coupled with general weaknesses, enabled the home team to tie up the score and put the game into extra innings.

EDITORIAL

Some space, it seems, should be devoted to the fine showing our baseball team made against the strong Middlesex nine at Concord last week. This was in every way one of the greatest achievements in the athletic line that Dummer has attained in many years. Everyone connected with the team in any way should be heartily congratulated for their part in such an attainment. Those that played certainly have received their just reward, and a few words of commendation should be put in for the substitutes for their part in the development of the team and their daily work with little hope of immediate reward or renown. This game has done many things to make it famous in the annals of Dummer Academy. It has completely and adequately wiped out the disastrous defeat of two years ago. It has raised us to the scale of the teams of schools of high rating athletically, and it has encouraged our athletes to keep fighting now to uphold their reputation. The baseball team should be the best this year that it has ever been, and this auspicious opening is only a glimpse of what we hope and expect from the team during the remainder of the season. The watchword of our rivals now must be "Watch that Dummer team."

News of Interest

The school suffered a staggering loss when "Jim" Bridges was taken into the Anna Jaques Hospital in Newburyport with pneumonia. The crisis has passed now, and he is resting more comfortably; but due to the long period of convalescence necessary, he will be unable to return to school this year. He was a tireless worker on the staff of this paper, and his loss will be greatly felt. He was also the leading performer for the Dramatic Club, and his loss will be hard to replace in that department. The Milestone, depending on his services, will also be hard hit. We extend to him our heartiest wishes for his quick and successful recovery.

Another series of one act plays will be presented in the Lang Gymnasium on May 22. This time the presentation consists of "A Thief by Night", "Sham", "The Medicine Man", and "Nevertheless".

Sanborn Seminary, coincidentally with the resignation of Athletic Director Delmar Borah, which takes effect in June, will lose numerous sport stars. Among those who will take their departure are McCarthy, Cronin, Marcotte, LeClair, Stevenson, Milbury, Sabin, Timmons, Levantin, Lynch, and Silverman to name only some. Most of these graduate while others are to transfer to other schools. Sanborn and Dummer have men constantly in athletics during the past two years. Perhaps there are those who criticise Coach Borah because several students had scholarships because of athletic ability mainly, but one must give him credit for the increased prestige he gave the Kingston institution, the erection of a gymnasium, and the enlargement of the playstead there.

Still another movie machine has been donated to purpose of our amusement, and it seems by the past trials that it is an improvement on all the others. On Saturday evening April 10 "The Call of the Wild" was presented, and on the next Saturday evening "Kavalina of the Northland" was put on. Mr. Bentley of the Board of Trustees is the man to be thanked for this new enterprise, and we express to him our heartiest. By way of suggestion to those in charge we would say that if the silver sheet were straightened out and smoothed, it would aid in giving the proper perspective and improve the performance greatly.

The first two games on the baseball schedule, Groton at Groton the 7th, and Traip Academy at Kittery the 17th, were cancelled because of the mud on our opponents' fields. A game with the Newburyport All-Stars at Dummer was substituted for the Traip game.

In the tenth McGinley, who hit consistently all day, lashed out a circuit drive that looked like it would account for the game, but more misplays accounted for the run Middlesex put over to keep in the running. For two innings both teams were unable to score and at the end of the twelfth the game was called. In the first frame "Doc" Hinds hit a three bagger and scored on McGinley's double for the first run of the game. Again in the third White scored another run after a hit, and "Larry" Kenney came home with the third run in the ninth. "Red" Haley was responsible for a neat double play in the fifth when he caught a fly in center field and snapped it in to McGinley on second to nip the runner.

THAYER 10—DUMMER 2

On April 24 Coach Reagan took his charges down to Thayer Academy to experience their first taste of defeat. The team showed none of the form that marked their playing at Concord, and errors and over-confidence were responsible for Thayer's 10 to 2 victory. The strain of twelve innings at Middlesex three days before proved too much for White and he only lasted out the first three innings. In the first McGinley raped out a three-bagger and came home on Hart's double. Hart scored from second on an error. Thayer evened up accounts in their half, and the second frame passed without a score. The third inning proved disastrous, and the home team took a lead never to be headed. With two on the sacks Long poled out a homer, and from then on till the seventh runs came in freely. Fitzsimmons relieved White at the slab but was hit even more freely, and in the seventh Wilson was pulled into the box from right field and successfully stemmed the tide for the remaining innings. Only six men came before the av's south-paw and four fanned, one flied out, and the other was nipped at first. He has control and speed in abundance and a hook a yard wide and looks like a million dollars in the role of relief twirler. Thayer had the ability to bunch their hits and these in the crucial moments and this accounted for a good many of their runs. The defeat had its good points in that it stemmed over-confidence in the bud and uncovered a likely new pitcher and the prospects for the future are brighter than ever.

GILBERT M. SMITH COMES TO DUMMER

The Hall of Fame at Dummer Academy has put a new niche in the chamber of honors to accommodate Gilbert M. Smith '21 and now of the Dummer faculty, who has shared in the editorship of a new French textbook recently published by the Mac-Millan Publishing Company of New York. Mr. Smith graduated from Saint Stephens College in 1925, and it was during his senior year there that he collaborated with Professor James H. Wilson, Head of the Department of Romance Languages, to produce this book. The production is an abridged edition of Notre Dame de Paris by Victor Hugo, the recognized masterpiece of the French historical novel, and the idea is unique. In the original the story covers close to eight hundred pages which is of course not suitable for classroom work. Mr. Wilson and Mr. Smith, however, have eliminated many philosophical and architectural dissertations from the complete work. The text followed is Oeuvres Completes de Victor Hugo, Hetzel Quantin, Paris with a few insignificant changes necessitated by the omissions. The text is suitable for second year French, and there is an ample supply of notes and idiomatic constructions plus a well prepared vocabulary. Mr. Smith is to be highly congratulated on his work on this book.
